LAHORE HIGH COURT, LAHORE

No. 28329/RHC/NJP

From

The Registrar,
Lahore High Court,
Lahore.

To

All the District & Sessions Judges,
In Punjab.

Dated Lahore the 12 November, 2012

Subject: RATIONAL DISTRIBUTION OF WORK.

Dear Sir,

Kindly refer to the letter of this Court No.26917/RHC/NJP dated 30th October, 2012 on the subject of statement showing the pendency of oldest (Oldest, Older & Old Cat-I) (Civil & Criminal) Cases upto 31.12.2008.

2. As you are aware of the fact that the subject of disposal of backlog of new oldest category (Oldest, Older & Old Cat-I) (Civil & Criminal) Cases upto 31.12.2008 by 31st December, 2012 pursuant to the decision of National Judicial (Policy Making) Committee dated 03.11.2012 came under discussion in recent meeting dated 10.11.2012 chaired by Hon'ble Chief Justice and it was decided that rational distribution of the backlog of new oldest category amongst the Judicial Officer would serve the purpose of achieving the target in effective manner.

3. It is, therefore, apprised that after rationalizing the pendency of new oldest category (Oldest, Older & Old Cat-I) (Civil & Criminal) Cases upto 31.12.2008, you are required to provide once again pendency of new oldest category of each Court (Court wise with name and designation) of the District by 17.11.2012 as per tables given below through e-mails (hafeezkhannjp@gmail.com and njpcoordinatorlhc@yahoo.com) to monitor the disposal of cases.

I

Statement Showing the Pendency of Oldest Cases (Civil & Criminal) upto 31.12.2008 as per NJP Statement (15.11.2012) of the District _____

Sr.No.	Name of		No. of Cases pending
	District	Court	Civil	Criminal
		D&SJ
		AD&SJ
		Civil Judge1st
		Civil Judge2nd
		Civil Judge3rd

Note: Districts are required to provide the pendency of each Court of the District even, no case is pending therein.

courts in discharging their duty in effective and efficient manner. The courts must keep the Bar on board in future for evolving a strategy to provide justice to the litigant public in effective way. Whereas chamber hours may be extended by the judges but their court sessions should not exceed the appointed timings without consent of parties and their counsels.

5. Viewing the strenuous efforts made by the judges, the Hon'ble Chief Justice has announced twenty laptops/prizes instead of ten to the judges of District Judiciary showing the unprecedented disposal of the Oldest Category (Civil+Criminal) Cases upto 2008.

6. You are, therefore, requested to convey the words of appreciation to the judicial officers working under your control as well as Members of local Bar Associations.

Yours Sincerely,

(MUHAMMAD HAFEEZ ULLAH KHAN)
D&SJ(I&R/NJP)
For Registrar